

COME JOIN US @ GREENBO LAKE STATE PARK

Friday, April 3rd *

- 6:00 Registration Begins
- 6:30 Storyteller Jane Morse - Appalachian Patchwork, We are Many
- 7:30 Kentucky Memories - Traditional Mountain String Band

Saturday, April 4th

- 8:00 Registration Begins
- 9:00 Carrie Eldridge - 1720 - 1820 Appalachian Frontier - Our First Frontier and the Trails that explored the Region
- 10:15 Break
- 10:30 Carrie Eldridge - Our Scots-Irish Ancestors - Big Footprint, but Little Evidence or Recognition, Who were the Scots-Irish and how did they "hide."
- 11:45 Lunch Break
- 1:00 Linda Cole - Working With Matches on Ancestry DNA
- 2:15 Break
- 2:30 James M Prichard - "I Will Die Like a Man: The Hard Fate of Thomas Martin."
- 3:45 Conference Closes

Friday night programs are free and open to our genealogy guests and their families. Even if they aren't interested in genealogy bring them down Friday night to listen to our wonderful storyteller & some of the best mountain string music you'll ever hear.